

What Should We Learn From Leaders Who Have a Public Moral Failure?

Mark Carter & Scott Chapman

Six Big Ideas

1. Character is what matters, not how well you preach and lead.
2. Celebrity culture has definitely hit the church.
3. Leaders of privilege don't exist without a culture of permission.
4. The difference between accountability and transparency. Is your life an open book?
5. Does your staff have permission to correct you?
6. Simplicity and humility is the only path. Jesus didn't live large.
